COSMETIC DENTIST AND FULL BODY
TRANSFORMATION CLINIC IN LONDON
DENTIST OF THE YEAR 2022

Come on Barbie, Let's go Party!

Come in and See our Fantastic Barbie Team

Our founder Dr Manrina Rhode has been a big fan of Barbie since she was a child. Her partner joked when she was building our new Super Clinic that she was building her Barbie Clinic, only in cream and gold rather than in traditional Barbiecore. With the Barbie film releasing tomorrow in the UK, of course we had to take time to Barbieify our DRMR team.

MEET DRMR'S BARBIE TEAM

This Barbie is winner of Dentist of the Year 2022 and owner of the brand new 'uber cool' DRMR Clinic in Knightsbridge. This Barbie is one of the top cosmetic dentists in the world, who continually invested in her education at top institutions across the world.

Now teaching dentists worldwide.

This Barbie runs her own training academy teaching the art of DRMR veneers, has her own skincare line, has created a whitening product and is founder of the DRMR brand.

Good going Barbie!

This Ken is an expert in creating epic body transformations which can lead his patients to have Superhero bodies. This Ken makes sure that his body transformation programme is designed to put on as much muscle naturally, in the shortest amount of time with the least work for his patients. The body transformation program uses a combination of 10-minute workouts, behavioural coaching, nutritional advice and fat-melting machines.

This Ken changes the lives of his patients, by not only allowing them to look good but also feel great.

This Ken is our very own orthodontic specialist, who completed his postgraduate training at the prestigious Kings and Guys and St Thomas Hospitals, obtaining his MSC in Orthodontics with Distinction at Kings College London.

This Ken also has a Membership in Orthodontics (MOrth) with the Royal College of Surgeons England and is on the GDC Specialist List in Orthodontics.

This Ken provides one-of-a kind treatments including WiN lingual braces, self-ligating DAMON braces, clear/ceramic braces and of course, Invisalign.

This Barbie will make sure you have lovely clean gums. This Barbie is really passionate about making sure that we focus on prevention and making sure that patients are in control of their own oral health.

This Barbie aims to provide a holistic approach and is an active member of the British Society of Dental Hygienists and Therapists.

This Barbie is a boss-lady who ensures that the clinic is always up to scratch with everything you will need for your appointments. This Barbie is constantly going on further training courses to further grow and learn as much as she can to help increase the services we provide at DRMR.

Behind the scenes, this Barbie works extremely hard making sure each day we are organised and prepared for the day and making sure that all your labwork is ready for you when you come and visit us!

This Barbie is an expert at all things facial aesthetics. This Barbie wants to make sure you look and feel confident and ensure that all of her treatment plans are individualised to each of her patients.

This Barbie has worked for over 10 years in top clinics on Harley Street, Wimpole Street and in Chelsea. This Barbie prides herself in offering bespoke non-surgical facial procedures and skin rejuvenation treatments.

This Barbie wants you to have your best glow!

This Barbie is our very own DNA Dietitian. This Barbie empowers her patients to eat according to their genes using the DNA Way.

This Barbie sits on the scientific advisory board of a number of health apps and guest lectures for the Nutrition and genetic Msc at St Mary's University London.

This Barbie has been featured in BBC future, the guardian and Men's Health and is really passionate about science communication.
